

Across:

- 2. The rule that used to define styles to be applied to different media types/devices.
- 5. Removes the space between table cells.
- 9. background-_____ can make the background go from the top of the page to the bottom of the page.
- 10. This display value places elements next to each other if there is space, and uses width and height values.
- 12. Elements are positioned relative to the browser window using position: _____
- 13. This display value drops an element below the previous element. Width and height are used.

- 14. This display value places elements next to each other if there is space, and ignores width and height values.

Down:

- 1. Controls the vertical alignment of elements.
- 3. What CSS property is used to create a linear gradient?
- 4. The browser prefix for Internet Explorer.
- 6. Sets the transparency of an element.
- 7. Adds space between the content and border.
- 8. The browser prefix for Mozilla Firefox.
- 11. The browser prefix for Chrome and Safari.

Important: include dashes – where needed